

CCURI Undergraduate Workshop Schedule

January 16-17, 2108

Moraine Park Technical College

January 16

9:00 – 10:00am

General Session: Undergraduate Research at Community College

This session will discuss why faculty chose to engage in undergraduate research, the published benefits to undergraduate research and barriers to implementation at community colleges.

Heather Bock, CCURI Project Director

10:00am-10:30am

Group activity: Why Undergraduate Research?

10:30am-11:00am

Breakout: Outcomes of Undergraduate Research

Each faculty or group will complete the first part of the undergraduate research strategic plan addressing the desired outcomes of Undergraduate Research in a specific course or department.

11:00am-11:15am

Break

11:15am-12:30pm

Examples of Undergraduate Research in Multiple Disciplines

This session will discuss examples from the CCURI network of undergraduate research implementation and projects from multiple academic disciplines

Virginia Balke, CCURI Co-PI

Heather Bock, CCURI Project Director

12:30pm-1:00pm

Lunch

1:00pm-2:30pm

Breakout: Activities and Products of Undergraduate Research

Each faculty or group will complete the second part of the undergraduate research strategic plan addressing the activities and products of Undergraduate Research in a specific course or department.

January 17

9:00am-10:00am General Session: Tools for Successful Undergraduate Research Implementation

This session will discuss the components required for successful undergraduate research implementation including professional development, faculty/administrator relations, collaborations and course assessment/evaluation.

Virginia Balke, CCURI Co-PI
Heather Bock, CCURI Project Director

10:00-11:00am Breakout: Task Planning

Each faculty or group will complete the final part of the undergraduate research strategic plan addressing the tasks required for implementation of Undergraduate Research in a specific course or department.

11:00am-12:00pm General Session: Sharing of Undergraduate Research Strategic Plans

Each faculty or group will briefly share their plan for undergraduate research implementation and the facilitators will address any final questions about the implementation process.

